

Invitation to our International Webinar Series

Social Prescribing Models: Concepts, Evidence, and Future Applications

Hosted by: Prof. Freia De Bock, Dr. Adrienne Alayli

Unit of Child Health Services Research, Clinic of General Pediatrics, Neonatology and Pediatric Cardiology, Medical Faculty, Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

The webinar series aims to stimulate the conversation between scientists, practitioners and policy makers about social prescribing services for children and families in Germany based on inputs from international and national experts.

Please send an e-mail to Versorgungsforschung_KiJ@med.uni-duesseldorf.de to register for participation in person at the University Hospital Düsseldorf or online.

Program (12-1pm)

Date	Title	Presenters
November 29 th , 2023	Social Prescribing: Establishing an international conceptual and operational definition	Freia De Bock (Introduction) Professor for Child Health Services Research, Heinrich-Heine-University, Düsseldorf Caitlin Muhl PhD Candidate, School of Nursing, Queen's University, Kingston, Canada
January 25 th 2024	Social prescribing to enhance wellbeing of children and young people: Insights from the UK	Kerryn Husk¹ & Vashti Berry² ¹ Associate Professor Health Services Research, University of Plymouth ² Associate Professor in Prevention Science, University of Exeter, UK
February 22 nd 2024	Applications of SP in General Medicine: A German Perspective	Wolfram Herrmann Professor for General Practice focusing on health Services Research, Charité Berlin, Founder "Kompetenznetzwerk Social Prescribing"
April 18 th 2024	New avenues for social prescribing: A Framework from a prevention perspective	Adrienne Alayli Deputy Head Child Health Services Research Unit, Heinrich-Heine-University Düsseldorf
May 23 rd 2024	Social Risk Screening in pediatric health service settings: a basis for a systematic SP approach?	Lena Rasch PhD Candidate, Child Health Services Research Unit, Heinrich-Heine-University Düsseldorf
June 2024	Social prescribing in Germany: potential and possible future applications (Podium Discussion)	Speakers will be confirmed asap.